

L'Observateur de Bruxelles®

DBF
Delegation des Barreaux de France

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Editorial:

Myriam Quéméner, Legal adviser, Expert before the Government, in charge of the fight against cyberthreats (Ministry for Home Affairs), Expert before the Council of Europe

Dossier

Fight against cybercrime in Europe: Legal framework and challenges

The Directive on security of network and information systems (NIS) henceforth ensures resilience against cybercrime at European level

Dr. Andreas Schwab, Member of the European Parliament

International investigations and prosecutions of criminals: state of play of the legal challenges

Grégory Mounier, Head of Unit, Prevention and Strategic Partnerships - European Cybercrime Center (EC3), Europol

Fundamental rights and fight against cybercrime and cyberterrorism

Christiane Féral-Schuhl, Former Bâtonnier of the Paris Bar, Cabinet FERAL-SCHUHL/SAINTE-MARIE

Focus on...

The paths of dialogue between the lawyer and the European Court of Human Rights

Frédéric Krenc, Member of the Brussels Bar, Lecturer at the University of Louvain

Column on EU litigation

Value added tax and respect of Human Rights

Patrick Danis, Partner, CMS Bureau Francis Lefebvre

The disclosure of confidential documents and the temporary protection in EU law
Vivien Terrien, Legal Secretary to the President of the General Court of Justice of the EU

Latest developments of EU Law

Library

General information

Our events

Other events

Our partners