

L'Observateur de Bruxelles®

DBE
Delegation des Barreaux de France

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Editorial:

Data protection: a legal framework indicative of the balance between different sources of the normative power

Jean-Luc Sauron, State Councillor, Delegate for European Law at the Council of State

Dossier

Data protection and mass surveillance

The EU-US Umbrella Agreement: an innovative instrument for data protection in the field of cooperation in criminal matters

Bruno Gencarelli, Head of Unit "International data flows and protection", Directorate-General Justice and Consumers, European Commission

Mass surveillance and free movement of people: the Passenger Name Record data under the PNR directive (directive 2016/681/EU)

Chantal Ingham, Professor-expert at Burgundy School of Business

Mass surveillance in the European Court of Human Rights' case law

Loredana Tassone, Avvocato at Rome and Strasbourg Bars

Data protection of lawyers: presentation of the CCBE recommendations on the protection of client confidentiality within the context of surveillance activities and the CCBE guidance on improving the IT security of lawyers against unlawful surveillance

Simone Cuomo, Senior legal advisor at the Council of Bars and Law Societies of Europe (CCBE)

Focus on...

Trachild

Dominique Attias, Vice-bâtonnier of the Paris Bar

Fiscal rulings and state aid: abstraction vs. reality

Adrien Giraud, Associate at Willkie Farr & Gallagher LLP, Lawyer at the Paris, New York and Brussels Bars

Foreword by Yves Mahiu, President of the “Conférence des Bâtonniers de France et d’Outre-mer” and synthesis of their decentralized General Assembly in Brussels, 23rd and 24th September 2016

Column on EU litigation

The Ferreira da Silva case: the national Supreme courts’ obligations regarding preliminary rulings

Jean-Paul Hordies, Lawyer at the Brussels and Paris Bars

Latest developments of EU Law

Library

General information

Our events

Other events

Our partners