

L'Observateur de Bruxelles®

DBF
Delegation des Barreaux de France

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Editorial

Michel Barnier, Negotiator-in-chief with the United Kingdom on behalf of the European Union

Column: Thanks for this Brexit

Michel Benichou, Former President of the Council of Bars and Law Societies of Europe (CCBE)

Dossier

Brexit: legal framework and consequences

The legal framework of the UK withdrawal from the European Union

Cécile Rapoport, Professor at University Rennes 1, Member of the Institut Universitaire de France

The consequences of Brexit on citizens' rights. A brief state of play

Myriam Benlolo-Carabot, Professor "agrégée" at University Paris Nanterre

The impact of Brexit on services: financial services are only the apparent part of the iceberg that has been hitting UK's economy

Benoît Le Bret & Romain Rard, Lawyers at Paris and Brussels' bars

Brexit and leaving the EU customs Union – stakes and perspectives

Aline Doussin, Partner at Squire Patton Boggs

The creation of chambers specialized in international civil and commercial litigation in Paris

Guy Canivet, First honorary President of the French "Cour de Cassation", Former member of the French constitutional court, President of the Legal High Committee for Financial Markets of Paris (HCJP)

Focus on...

The Lawyers' role in the preliminary ruling procedure

Laurent Coutron, Professor at University of Montpellier, Legal clerk at the European Court of Justice

Lawyers' fees and VAT: an international headache

Jacques Taquet, Member of the French delegation before the CCBE

Latest developments of EU Law

Library

General information

Our events

Other events

Our partners