

L'Observateur de Bruxelles®

DBF
Délegation des Barreaux de France

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Editorial

Philippe Lamberts, MEP, Co-Chair of the Greens/European Free Alliance at the European Parliament

Dossier

Last evolutions in EU banking and financial law

Capital Markets Union: faster, higher, stronger

Olivier Guersent, Director General at Directorate-general Financial Stability, Financial services and Capital Markets Union (FISMA), European Commission

Overview 2016-2017 of secondary law adopted in EU financial and banking law

Thierry Bonneau, "Agrége des facultés de droit", Professor at University Panthéon-Assas (Paris II)

Financial supervision in the European Union and in the Eurozone after the crisis: a constantly evolving legal framework

Pieter Van Cleynenbreugel, Professor of European law at University of Liège

The European banking Union: an ambitious, well-built but still to be completed project

Jean-François Pons, Consultant at Alphalex-consult, President of the Board of the European Money Market Institute (EMMI)

The regulatory framework for FinTechs

Silvestre Tandeau de Marsac, Lawyer at the Paris Bar, Partner at Fischer, Tandeau de Marsac, Sur et Associés

Focus on...

Speech of the Solemn Reassembly of the Paris Bar (1 December 2017)

Frédéric Sicard, Former "Bâtonnier" of the Paris Bar

E-codex, the dematerialization of the European order for payment procedure

Clarisse Degert-Ribeiro, Lawyer at the Paris Bar & Valérie Blairon, Lawyer at the Paris and Brussels Bars

The new General data protection Regulation

Paul Van den Bulck, Lawyer at the Paris and Brussels Bars

Latest developments of EU Law

Bibliography

General information

Our events

Other events

Our partners